Author's Notes:
This is my first drabble. Enjoy!

I woke up to the sound of birds chirping from the balcony. I found myself lying next to you, naked, beneath the crumpled white sheets. I rolled on top of you carefully, drinking in your endless beauty with my eyes, for you were glowing from our love-making last night. Your chest was heaving with every breath.
You're too beautiful, Percy.
I slowly leaned towards your face and kissed on your forehead. As I pulled away, you opened your eyes and lovingly smiled at me.
"Good morning, babe." You said oh-so-sweetly. I really wish every morning would start like this.
